SERVICE, HELP AND INFORMATION ORGANIZATIONS FOR VETERANS

The Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW)- <http://www.vfw.org/>, is one of the best organizations when it comes to fighting for your benefits. even if you are not a member the VFW has Service Officers at most VA facilities who can help you with your claims.

The American Legion - <http://www.legion.org/>, is the largest veterans organization in the world. Again, a great source of information and help if you need it. The Legion can represent you in the claims process and you don't have to be a member.

A great organization with incredible resources and lots of information is the Disabled American Veterans (DAV)- <https://www.dav.org/>. Just click the link to peruse their services and see if they might be able to help with your particular situation.

Here is the link to AMVETS- <http://www.amvets.org/>, another great service organization.

Even if you aren't a Vietnam vet the Vietnam Veterans of America (VVA)- <http://www.vva.org/>, can provide great information on VA benefits and dealing with the VA. This is a great site to explore.

USDR is the Uniformed Services Disabled Retirees. This is a great site for retirees who are disabled. Always up-to-date information. Find them here (<http://www.naus.org/>)

For veterans' legal assistance in the Los Angeles area... <http://www.lafla.org/> and <http://www.innercitylaw.org/> .

Blue Water Navy(<http://www.bluewaternavy.org/>) ... Dioxin exposure information for sailors.

Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans of America (IAVA) (<http://iava.org/>)... formerly known as Operation Truth.

The National Gulf War Resource Center provides incredible information for anyone who served in the Gulf at any time. The site is NGWRC.org.(<http://www.ngwrc.org/>)
